Dear Superintendent Bongalos:

Greetings from the Office of the Governor - Sports Development Unit!

Sports contribute much to the well-being of the Negorenses and to our local economy. The Office of the Governor has formulated the annual Sports Development Program Framework to provide clear direction in the promotion and development of sports program in the Province and one is the annual Governor's Sports Festival.

The 8th Governor's Sports Festival will be organizing more less 25 different sporting events that will surely provide friendship, development, sports exposure and excitement in the Province this coming October 1 to 30, 2018 and during the Buglasan Festival. The Calendar of Sports Events is attached herewith for your appreciation.

In view of this, I am writing your good self to invite you and to seek for your support in the upcoming Governor's Sports Festival. We cordially invite your Teams to participate in the different sporting events found in the attached Calendar of Sports Events and listed are the different Sports Event Coordinators with their respective contact numbers for inquiries on the specific tournament guidelines, scheduling and playing venues for there may be changes.

In this connection, since there are teams coming from different LGU's who will be playing different sports events in the Province, we would like to request for the billeting of the officials and athletes during the competitions listed in the attached calendar.

We hope and pray that you will honor our invitation and for your support to this annual event in our Province.

Thank you very much. More power! God bless you and Negros Oriental!

Very truly yours,
