Dear Dr. Bongalos,

Blessings from Jesus and Blessed Mother Mary !

St. Louis School of Don Bosco Inc. continues to take pride in its 51 years of existence as an academic institution in Dumaguete City, Negros Oriental. Various activities are included in the school's formation program for the entire Educative Pastoral Community.

With the theme : SLSDB @ 51 : "GOLD PLUS O-nwards N-obler E-xperiences", the Guidance Office in collaboration with the Student Services and Affairs Office is spearheading a one-day Parenting Symposia which is anchored on this year's Don Bosco stenna : "Let us Cultivate the Art of Listening and of Accompaniment as a Family". We have invited Mr. Earnest L. Tan, author, licensed Guidance Counselor and Formation Professional from Manila together with Dr. Stephanie Eloisa D. Miaco, a psychiatrist from Negros Oriental.

In this regard, we would request official dissemination from your office to enjoin the school heads, guidance counselors, guidance designates, Values Education teachers of the Basic Education unit from both public and private schools in the Division of Negros Oriental. We look forward to a continuing partnership with the Department of Education in this laudable undertaking. . A registration fee of P 400.00 shall be collected from each participant which will cover lunch, snacks, seminar kit and certificate of participation.

To facilitate an organized flow of the said activity, please contact our Central Office (422-2712 local 101) or Ms. Mimi (Mobile No. 09270215716) to pre-register and confirm your participation on or before November 6, 2018.

God bless!
