Dear Dr. Bungalos:

Greetings!

Thank you for the continuous support you have extended in enabling our teachers improve their knowledge, skills, and practice.

The Maria Luz CPD Consultancy Training, licensed CPD Provider for Professional Teachers (Accreditation No. 2018-139) is conducting a two-day live out seminar/workshop for teachers and teacher educators on Gender Sensitivity for Teachers. The schedule is 8 am – 5pm, August 18 & 19, 2018 at the C & L Suites Inn, Dumaguete City. A registration fee of 2000 pesos per participant is collected to cover for 2 meals and 4 snacks.

This course for teachers is a practical tool of developing awareness, knowledge, skills, and behavior on gender enabling teachers to be responsive to the requirements of learners and co-workers of both sexes and to respond with equal respect and consideration in the face of gender differentiation. The gender competency that may be gained by the participants from this course is viewed instrumental in attaining equal participation among both male and female learners and in assisting the school management in mainstreaming gender issues and in effecting relevant institutional changes at the school level.

The methodology used in this training resource is interactive and participatory. It uses a lot of group work and discussion that acknowledge and respects the knowledge of staff in their own fields of work, while providing them with additional tools to discuss regarding mainstreaming gender into their ongoing work.

Strategies on communication, listening, building consensus, creating shared meaning, and developing learning partnership are addressed in the workshop.

In this connection, I would like to request your office to encourage your teachers to attend this training workshop. Certificates with the corresponding CPD points will be provided.

Attached please find a copy of the Program of Activities.

Thank you.

Yours truly,

Maria Luz Calumpang – Fuentes, PhD
