Dear fellow Youth Builder,

Greetings of Peace!

The ANGAT KAYUMANGGI YOUTH CAMP is one of the many fruits of the Ayala Young Leaders Congress, a concrete expression of the Ayala group's commitment to national development. The Angat Kayumanggi Youth Camp was initiated by the Ayala Young Leaders Alliance – Dumaguete Chapter last 2010 after seeing the need for developing the potentials of the high school students in leadership, both in school and in community.

The Congress shall be participated in by 30 of the most outstanding student leaders in their junior and year selected from the high schools across the Central Visayas Region. It features lectures, outdoor activities, plenary sessions, and project management seminar. Individuals who highly exemplify excellent academic performance and leadership skills share their own leadership stories and experiences and challenge participants' perspectives to foster growth and development. Also, speakers from the field of youth development and community advocacies share their visions for the community to enlighten the youth. Due to the periodical exams of the participating schools, the youth camp has been moved on January 19-21, 2018. It will be held at Camp Leon Kilat, Tanjay City.

For questions, comments and suggestions, you may contact us at 0905-807-7148 (Renz Macion) or 0917-720-6737 (Amidala Quisumbing)

We are anticipating your positive response to this call. Indeed, your support will be of great assistance to us in this love-fueled and faith-driven effort, not just in uplifting the well being of the Filipino youth, but as well as in promoting a better Philippines.

Thank you and have a good day!

Sincerely yours,
