Dr. Wilfreda D. Bongalos, CESO VI
Schools Division Superintendent
Dep.Ed, Dumaguete City
Negros Oriental

Dear Dr. Bongalos:

The Office of the Ombudsman-Visayas wishes to extend its message of Excellence and Integrity by introducing its program, the Campus Integrity Crusader (CIC) to the youth. The CIC aims to capacitate and inculcate public service values to the youth in preparation for them to become conscientious community leaders in the future.

It is for this reason that the Office of the Ombudsman for the Visayas intends to conduct a continuing orientations and accreditations of campus student organizations, preferably the student government and student council of both the secondary and tertiary schools all over the Visayas.

In particular, we aim to accredit the student organizations in the Province of Negros Oriental. We have scheduled the aforesaid Orientation/Accreditation on August 24, 2018 (Friday) from 10:00 AM – 3:00 PM at NORSU-Main Campus (Gymnasium) Dumaguete City. Participants will be provided lunch and p.m. snacks. We are expecting around 300 participants from about 75 schools in the Province of Negros Oriental.

May we, therefore, request your assistance in inviting the participation of at least four (4) officers of the Student Government headed by its President, the Vice-President, their Adviser, and the principal or his authorized representative.

For queries, please do not hesitate to contact Ms. Maria Irene L. Pintor at (032) 4166134/09238233838 and Ms. Leny L. Manolong at 09254750356, of the Public Assistance and Corruption Prevention Bureau of this office.

Thank you so much for partnering with the Office of the Ombudsman-Visayas in this advocacy.

Sincerely yours,

PAUL ELMER M. CLEMENTE
Deputy Ombudsman – Visayas
